

Doodle Notes Challenge Strips (to be cut and put in stacks for students to use with Doodle Notes Student Handout)

1.) Using the map projected on the screen, label the following countries on your blank map found on your Doodle Notes Handout:

Iran, Iraq, Afghanistan, Saudi Arabia, Syria, Jordan, Yemen, Oman, Qatar, Kuwait

Outline the border of Iraq with a red colored pencil or thin marker.

2.) The Gulf War lasted from August of 1991 to February of 1992. It took place in Kuwait and Iraq in the Middle East. Iraq is a new nation. In 1916, the British and French governments formed Iraq with the Sykes-Picot Agreement. This Agreement divided the Middle East into the nations of Saudi Arabia, Syria, Jordan, Yemen, Oman, Qatar, Kuwait, Iraq, and a few others. Before 1916, the Middle East consisted of many Nomadic Tribes, Iran, Egypt, and Turkey.

Create an illustration or redraw the pictoword for Nomadic Tribe. Draw by the Nomadic Tribe label found on your Doodle Notes Challenge Handout.

3.) Create an illustration or redraw the pictoword for standard of living on your Doodle Notes Challenge Handout.

4.) Saddam Hussein became Iraq's fifth president in 1979. The president was a dictator. He was born in Iraq in 1937 and lived there most of his life. He did many good things for Iraq. He made it a modern country. He built schools and hospitals. He improved farming methods. He created jobs and raised the standard of living for all the people. He also did many bad things. He created chemical weapons to use in battles. He imprisoned people who disagreed with him. He killed his political enemies.

*Find "Saddam Hussein" on your Doodle Notes Handout. Draw 3 symbols under "good" to show good things that he did for Iraq. Draw 3 symbols under "bad" to show bad things that he did during his reign in Iraq.

5.) Kuwait is a tiny country located at the toe of Iraq. Kuwait owed the government of Iraq a lot of money. It also had a large supply of oil resources.

*On your Doodle Notes Handout, find Kuwait on the map and draw a symbol for oil (write "oil" under your symbol).

6.) On August 2, 1990, President Hussein ordered the Iraqi soldiers to invade Kuwait. It wanted to take Kuwait's oil to pay for the money Kuwait owed to Iraq. However, Iraq violated Kuwait's sovereignty by invading it.

*Draw a red arrow from Iraq to Kuwait on the map found on your Doodle Notes Handout.

7.) Iraq violated Kuwait's sovereignty by invading it. This is against international law. As a result, the United Nations Security Council voted to punish Iraq. It passed a resolution to impose economic sanctions on Iraq. The United Nations Security Council also set a deadline for Iraq to withdraw from Kuwait. The deadline was January 15, 1991. Iraq did not comply with the deadline.

*On your Doodle Notes Handout, complete the "Sequence of Events" boxes showing the main cause of the Persian Gulf War. For each box, complete the missing part of the sentence and add a symbol or picture of the information.
