“Dear Friend,

“I hope that all is well with you. I am doing well but due to the present state of national emergency the Pacific Fleet is held in a place known as Hawaiian Territory.

“Would you do me a great favor? Whenever you’re in town get me some info on our class rings. I missed out on getting one due to the lack of funds. Now that I’m away from everything that reminds me of good old times, I would like very much to have that ring. I would be glad to pay any price.

“Thanks very much,
Yours truly,”
