It's been 20 years, but we will never forget.

Below are the names of 140 soldiers with Alabama ties who died on Sept. 11, 2001, and in the war on terror since that fateful Tuesday 20 years ago, according to names compiled by the Alabama Veterans Affairs Office and U.S. Department of Defense.

In the immediate aftermath of the terrorist attacks on Sept. 11, 2001, the U.S. military, along with a coalition of allied forces, began Operation Enduring Freedom in Afghanistan to weed out al Qaeda and the Taliban regime. The operation was later renamed Operation Freedom's Sentinel after U.S. combat operations ended Dec. 31, 2014.

Operation Iraqi Freedom includes casualties that occurred between March 19, 2003, and Aug. 31, 2010, in the Arabian Sea, Bahrain, Gulf of Aden, Gulf of Oman, Iraq, Kuwait, Oman, Persian Gulf, Qatar, Red Sea, Saudi Arabia and the United Arab Emirates. Casualties in these countries before March 19, 2003, were considered Operation Enduring Freedom, according to the Department of Defense.

Along with the nearly 3,000 civilians, police, fire and soldiers killed on Sept. 11, 2001, more than 7,000 U.S. soldiers were killed in the war on terror in the 20 years after that day, according to the U.S. Department of Defense. The numbers do not include contractors.
